

CWR has opportunities to travel abroad in a group and to volunteer long-term.

CWR organizes a few group expeditions to Thailand each year. These are excellent opportunities to experience the Thai culture and to explore places of interest, as well as to see firsthand the positive impact that CWR is able to have on the lives of children and the greater community around Northern Thailand. These group travel opportunities combine the experience of veteran CWR board members who have been to Thailand countless times with our established network of individuals and organizations. By utilizing these resources, we are able to take in some of the breathtaking classic scenes of Thailand, such as the Floating Market of Bangkok and the renowned White Temple of Chiang Rai, but additionally we can take you off the beaten track, by visiting villages, bonding with the children that we serve directly at Promise Home, and relaxing with the group after an exciting day of exploring. We hope that you will consider joining us on one of our trips. Please contact us for additional information.
